

B1: PRE INTERMEDIATE

Age Group - 13 to 15

THURSDAY | 6:00 - 7:30 PM

Overview

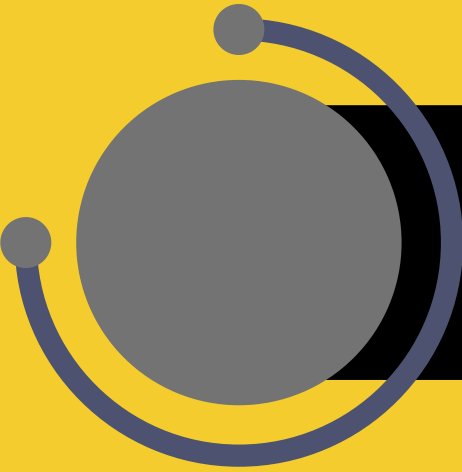

About the Course: B1 - Pre-Intermediate

This course is designed for students who have completed the A2: Elementary course. It provides learners with a solid foundation in the basics of the language, focusing on essential vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation skills. Through engaging lessons and interactive exercises, students will build confidence and proficiency in speaking, listening, reading and writing. The course aims to create a supportive and enjoyable learning environment, encouraging students to practice and apply their new skills in real-life situations. So, we welcome you to join this course if you are 13, 14 or 15 years old.

Method of Delivery

All sessions will be delivered ONLINE via ZOOM. A mixture of LIVE and RECORDED lessons will be accessible to our students 24*7 to be followed at any convenient time.

Learning Hours

There will be a maximum of 90 minutes of LIVE interaction with the course instructor weekly. There will be 2 - 3 RECORDED lessons per week uploaded to the online learning platform. Altogether, our students will receive 150 minutes of learning time weekly.

Goals

Foster a Positive Attitude:

- To create a fun and encouraging environment where children develop a positive association with learning English.
- To build confidence in their ability to communicate in English.

Develop Basic Communication Skills:

- To introduce and develop basic listening and speaking skills.
- To build a foundation for future English language learning.

Introduce Foundational Vocabulary:

- To introduce and familiarize children with basic English vocabulary related to everyday life.

Objectives

Listening:

At this level, the focus is on understanding the main points of clear, standard speech on familiar topics.

- Understanding Main Ideas: You will be able to understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters, such as work, school, and leisure.
- Following Conversations: You will be able to follow the main points of a discussion on familiar topics when the speech is reasonably clear and in standard dialect.
- Understanding Instructions and Directions: You will be able to understand detailed instructions or directions, provided they are spoken clearly and relate to familiar situations (e.g., how to get somewhere, how to use something).
- Comprehending Information in Interviews: You will be able to understand the main information conveyed in simple interviews on familiar topics.
- Identifying Key Information in Narratives: You will be able to understand the main plot and key events in simple stories or narratives.
- Understanding Basic Announcements and Messages: You will be able to understand the main message in clear, standard public announcements and simple audio messages.

Speaking:

The goal here is to communicate with some fluency and spontaneity on familiar topics.

- Engaging in Conversations on Familiar Topics: You will be able to enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest, or pertinent to everyday life (e.g., family, hobbies, travel, current events).
- Describing Experiences and Events: You will be able to describe experiences, events, dreams, hopes, and ambitions in a reasonably coherent way.
- Giving Reasons and Explanations: You will be able to briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions, plans, and actions.
- Narrating a Story: You will be able to relate the plot of a book or film and describe your reactions.
- Expressing and Justifying Opinions: You will be able to express your opinion on familiar topics and provide brief justifications.
- Dealing with Most Travel Situations: You will be able to deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken (e.g., asking for information, ordering food, dealing with accommodation).

Vocabulary:

Vocabulary development at this level involves expanding your range to discuss a wider variety of topics.

- Understanding and Using Vocabulary Related to Personal Interests and Hobbies: You will learn and use vocabulary related to your hobbies, interests, and leisure activities.
- Expanding Vocabulary Related to Work and Study: You will acquire vocabulary relevant to your work or studies, including common tasks and interactions.
- Learning Vocabulary for Describing Experiences and Feelings: You will learn words and phrases to describe past experiences, emotions, and reactions in more detail.
- Understanding and Using Vocabulary Related to Current Events: You will expand your vocabulary to discuss common current events and social issues.
- Acquiring Vocabulary for Giving Advice and Making Suggestions: You will learn phrases for offering advice and making suggestions.
- Learning Vocabulary Related to Travel and Tourism: You will expand your vocabulary related to travel arrangements, accommodation, and sightseeing.

Social and Emotional Objectives:

Developing these skills will enhance your ability to interact effectively and navigate social situations in English.

- Building Fluency and Spontaneity: You will aim to speak with more natural flow and less hesitation on familiar topics.
- Developing Confidence in Expressing Opinions: You will become more confident in sharing your thoughts and feelings in English.
- Learning to Initiate and Maintain Conversations: You will develop skills to start conversations and keep them going on familiar subjects.
- Showing Awareness of Different Communication Styles: You will begin to recognise and adapt to basic differences in communication styles.
- Managing Misunderstandings: You will learn simple strategies to clarify misunderstandings and ask for repetition or rephrasing.
- Developing Empathy in Communication: You will aim to understand and respond appropriately to the emotions expressed by others.
- Collaborating Effectively in Group Tasks: You will practice working with others in English to achieve a common goal, such as in discussions or problem-solving activities.
- Taking Initiative in Communication: You will be encouraged to actively participate in conversations and seek opportunities to use English.
- Developing Resilience in Communication: You will learn to cope with communication challenges and not be discouraged by mistakes.
- Showing Cultural Sensitivity: You will begin to develop an awareness of basic cultural differences that might influence communication.
